

MANAGEMENT OF COASTAL AND MARINE ENVIRONMENTS

Responsible professor: FERNANDO G. BRUN MURILLO

Credits: 5,0 ECTS

Detailed programme:

LEARNING BLOCK	TOPIC OR ACTIVITY
B1	Conservation and management of marine biodiversity I.
B2	Conservation and management of marine biodiversity II.
B3	International and European legal framework for the management of marine and coastal environments.
B4	Legal framework for the management of marine and coastal environments in Spain.
B5	Introduction to integrated management of coastal areas.
B6	Integrated management of coastal areas II: case study.
B7	Towards an integrated management of the marine environment: analysis of a new conceptual and methodological framework.
B8	Case study: marine spatial planning.
B9-10	Practical session: marine strategy in Spain.
B11	Restoration of tidal marshes.
B12	Beach management.
B13-14	Practical session: assessment and characterisation of coastal dunes.
B15-16	Management of mineral and energetic marine resources.
B17	Field trip to the Gibraltar Strait Natural park (2 days).

Evaluation system:

	SYSTEM	WEIGHT
	Written or oral exam	50 – 80
	Attendance and usage of on-site formative activities	0 – 20
	Written essays	5 – 20
	Presentation of exercises, topics and projects	0 – 20
	Attendance and participation in practical activities	0 – 20
	Virtual campus graded activities (Online)	0 – 20
	Other systems approved by the teaching coordination team for this subject, with approval from the Master academic committee	0 – 50