

Major changes in the WACOMA modules as a result of the COVID-19 state of alarm:

Module title: Conflict resolution

Lecturer(s) full name(s): María del Mar Martín Aragón

Chosen online teaching method(s): While lessons time I'll teach via Google Meet for about one hour and a half, after that there would be on line activities to be made and handled during the lessons time. I will remain connected for the entire session in case the students want to reach me with doubts or other issues via the campus virtual chat tool.

Major changes in the evaluation method with respect to official planning as a direct consequence of the state of alarm (*): No major changes presented.
